

Sent to BID Businesses on 11th February 2022

Friday 10 February – please report any disorder in Clapham Junction if witnessed – schools break-up for half-term

Over the last few weeks there have been groups of youths causing problems around McDonald's in Clapham Junction (in St John's Road) and Southside Shopping Centre in Wandsworth; the Police have been involved and have now increased their patrols in those areas. There is no intelligence to say that any incidents might happen, but the schools' break-up for half-term today (11th Feb) and there could be large groups gathering around the McDonald's in St John's Road or in the vicinity.

I have been contacted by the Police, to ask BID businesses to report any signs of disorder to them. If you see any large groups of pupils congregating on any of the roads around Clapham Junction, please call 999 – as the Police will be on patrols in the area.

I will also be in the Junction on foot tomorrow, if you wish to contact me personally.
